Child Protection Careers
Open Day

Who should attend
• Students and graduates from social work, psychology and other welfare related courses.
• Experienced professionals with relevant qualifications seeking a career change.

Event details
Hear leading child protection practitioners talk about:
• what they do
• student placements
• the rewards and challenges of the job
• development and career opportunities
• how to become a practitioner.
And, from students undertaking their child protection student placements.

When:
Tuesday 1 October 2013
10.00am to 12.30pm

Where:
Department of Human Services
50 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne
Level 1, Room 1.10
closest train station is Parliament Station

Hear the powerful story of a young person who has experienced the child protection system

Register your interest in attending